

C of C Banquet 7 Thursday at Barlow Hotel

Final arrangements are almost complete for the Annual Chamber of Commerce Meeting and Banquet to be held at 7 o'clock Thursday night at the Barlow Hotel, according to Bill Gunter, president of the organization.

Tickets are still available at both the First National Bank and Citizens National Bank as well as from W. L. Tate at Hope Auto Company and a number of other chamber board members.

Speaker for the occasion will be Col. Carl C. Hinkle, Jr., the new executive director of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission and a former commander of the Little Rock Air Force Base at Jacksonville, Ark.

Colonel Hinkle was born in Hendersonville, Tenn., March 3, 1917. He attended Vanderbilt University, receiving a BA degree in 1938. In 1937 he was All-American Center at Vanderbilt. He entered the United States Military Academy in July 1938 and was graduate four years later with a BS degree and a commission as a second lieutenant in the Infantry. Shortly thereafter he attended flying schools in Florida, Mississippi, and Illinois, receiving his wings and transfer to the Army Air Corps in December 1942.

After combat crew training in B-17's Colonel Hinkle went to England with the 401st Bomb Group as Squadron Operations Officer. On January 1, 1944 he became commander of the 614th Bomb Squadron. In July 1944 he transferred to the 351st Bomb Group as Group Operations Officer in which position he remained until the end of the war. While in England Co-

Winter to Be Here for Rest Week

Winter is expected to maintain its grip on Arkansas the remainder of this week, with temperatures about 10 degrees below normal and sunny skies giving way to rain or snow.

Overnight minimums today were warmer, with Fayetteville exchanging a minus six of Tuesday for 11 above this morning. But nowhere in the state were minimum temperatures above 20 degrees.

The Weather Bureau says it will be a little warmer in all but the central section Thursday with rain expected in all areas.

The five-day outlook says precipitation will total between one half and one inch in rain or snow Thursday and Friday. More snow or rain was expected about Monday.

Castro Pain in Neck to U.S., But He Definitely Has Cuba Under Control

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fidel Castro has been boss of Cuba five years this month. How is he doing? He is still there and still a pain in the neck to the United States, and a big embarrassment.

This noisy and flamboyant man is probably a pain to the Russians, too, but an expensive pain. The help they're giving him costs a pretty penny but they hardly dare stop, no matter how much they wish they could.

They've taken Castro under their wing, he is their first foothold in the Western Hemisphere, and for them to let him flop would be an international embarrassment.

It's easy to belittle him. It's done often in this country: the low living standard in Cuba, the poor Cuban sugar crop, the regimentation of the people. Cubans still flee Cuba and the exiles hate him.

But there is no evidence all the Cubans do. Whether he could retain power in a truly free election is something else, but his dictatorship prevails and shows no signs of toppling.

Without Soviet help he might not have survived. But this country's desire to ruin him by isolating him economically—shutting him off from trade with American allies or friends—is far from completely successful.

A British firm just closed a deal to sell him 400 buses for $10 million. Generalissimo Francisco Franco's Spain, where communism was destroyed in the 1930s, opened an airline service to Cuba and reportedly has been considering trading with him.

This situation has its own irony: the United States wants no one to give Castro economic help but is willing to sell wheat to the Soviet Union.

The answer is simple on that one. Castro is a close-up mirror and the Soviet Union isn't; getting along with the Soviet Union is important, but getting along with Castro isn't.

Castro flew off to Moscow to see Premier Khrushchev right after the American-Panamanian riots began last week. Whether he went to talk about that or about more Soviet help for Cuba isn't known yet.

Through it all Castro has been a five-year disaster for the United States in more ways than one:

1. So long as he stays, communism has a foot in America's backyard.

2. The United States has failed to abolish him, despite all its huffing and puffing. This has left the United States red-faced.

3. The American-backed invasion of Cuba, the only real try at getting rid of him, was a total bust.

4. Castro provided the setting for the greatest shock of the late President John F. Kennedy's administration, when Khrushchev almost got away with slipping his missiles into Cuba.

When Kennedy forced the Russians to withdraw the weapons it required an unforgettable showdown that was tough on everybody's nervous system.

The fact that Castro could kick the American shins, and get away with it, may have been an inspiration to the Panamanians to assert themselves.

In an earlier time—say the days of Theodore Roosevelt, which was a time of big-power imperialism—the United States might have settled Castro's hash fast with a quick and direct invasion.

But now the United States and the Soviet Union, also, insisting they have no imperialistic intentions, have to worry about world opinion, which they are trying to influence, when they deal with little nations.

Thus both of them, big as they are, have to operate with one hand tied behind their backs when they encounter troublemakers, although the Soviets used both hands to crush Hungarians when they tried to assert themselves.

This gives Castro a lot of room to maneuver and shake his fist, which he has been doing pretty well, without fear of being belted. There's nothing in sight to indicate it won't be that way for some time.

7 Children But They've No Name

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Clyde Swanson, 50, turned himself in Tuesday to Sheriff Lester Plackmeyer of St. Charles County, because his seven children "don't have my name."

It was 27 years ago that George Hutchinson fled from an Illinois State Penitentiary farm at Pontiac and started a new life as Clyde Swanson. He had served six years of a one-year-to-life sentence for robbing passengers on a Rockford, Ill., streetcar.

As Clyde Swanson he spent four years in the Army in the South Pacific. He was awarded a purple heart for his wounds suffered in action and was honorably discharged.

Then, Clyde Swanson married and moved with his bride to Bridgeton, a St. Louis suburb. "You know," he told Plackmeyer, "in those 27 years I never even got a traffic ticket. But last week I watched the children getting ready for school and thought: 'These are my children, but they don't have my name.'"

After talking it over with his wife, who was unaware of his record, they decided to "clear things up."

Officers from the penitentiary farm were scheduled to pick Hutchinson up and return him to Pontiac today.

Forfeit Bond in Striking of Adlai

DALLAS (AP) — A Dallas woman accused of striking U.S. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson with a placard here last October has forfeited a $25 bond for failure to appear and answer court charges.

Corporation Court Judge Charles Wells ordered the forfeiture Tuesday for Mrs. Cora Frederickson.

Stevenson, ambassador to the United Nations, was struck as he left a U.N. Day rally at Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

Forfeiture of the bond closed the case, said Chief Prosecutor J.W. Schofield.

Liz's Suit Is Going to Take Time

By OSCAR KAUFMANN

PUERTO VALLARTA, Mexico (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor's suit to divorce Eddie Fisher "surely will not be settled" in time for her to marry Richard Burton in Mexico, one of her attorneys said today.

Miss Taylor filed for divorce in Puerto Vallarta Tuesday, charging that Fisher "abandoned our legal domicile more than a year ago and we have lived separated since without his having started any action to dissolve our marriage."

Burton must leave Puerto Vallarta by Jan. 23 for Toronto to begin rehearsing a stage production of "Hamlet."

Antonio Valenzuela, one of her attorneys, said the divorce "surely will not be settled before Mr. Burton's departure."

Judge Arcadio Estrada, with whom the suit was filed, gave Fisher 21 days to reply. Valenzuela said he would fly to Mexico City today with the paper calling on Fisher to reply and air-mail them to another lawyer for Miss Taylor, Milton Rudin of Los Angeles. Rudin is to deliver them to the Clark County, Nev., sheriff's office for delivery to Fisher, who is filing a singing engagement in Las Vegas.

Fisher had no comment on his wife's action, although he said Monday he was not "creating any difficulties" for Miss Taylor. Fisher's lawyer in New York, Louis Nizer, also would not comment.

Miss Taylor and Burton, secluded in the cliffside home they have shared in Puerto Vallarta since September, refused to talk to newsmen.

Metal Price Rise to Hit Consumer

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—A price rising trend closer than usual to the consumer's pocketbook is spreading in the metals industries.

It is tied to the general business upswing. And in large part the pattern is one of price increases on finished products in good demand rather than across-the-board hikes or increases on basic metal to which the consumer pays little heed.

For the producers and fabricators of steel, aluminum and other metals the price question is still a touchy one. There's a lot of competition, the traditional hazard for price rise moves.

And there's always the question is a change in the consumer's present attitude of free spending if goods should come to seem too expensive. Such a change could curb the business upswing, already a venerable one.

The new look to price rises was given last year by the steel industry. It made selective increases, carefully choosing those products for which the demand was strong and the competition from other materials less of a threat. In most cases the increases stuck. And the Kennedy administration accepted the principle of selectivity, whereas an across-the-board increase had been squashed a year before.

Now the aluminum producers are starting to firm a product price list that turned soft two years ago. They also are working at the finished goods end, rather than at another general rise in aluminum ingot. Such an increase, a small one, was made last October. But a later attempt for a second ingot price boost failed.

Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp., Oakland, Calif., announced a rise of one cent a pound in ingot prices in December, but backed down when Aluminum Co. of America refused to go along.

Now Alcoa is raising the price on hundreds of high-volume sheet and plate products up to two cents a pound. Increased operating costs and skimpy returns on investment are given as the reasons.

Sheet and plates account for about 45 per cent of all fabricated aluminum products. Demand increased smartly last fall.

Picture of a Bachelor Deep in Misgivings on the Thought of Marriage

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—If all of Hollywood's eligible bachelors shared the sentiments of George Chakiris, it looks like a forlorn Leap Year for America's man-seeking maidens.

"I wouldn't want to spend all my life unmarried, but right now I'm not looking for a wife—I'm not even going steady."

Although he has a quick sense of humor, Chakiris is a sensitive, self-questioning man who is less impressed than his fans with his relatively quick rise to stardom. He wants to succeed as a many-faceted performer—a singer, a dancer, an actor.

He is one of seven children, and his father—Chakiris is of Greek descent—had a hard time making a living for them by operating a restaurant, running a small produce firm, and driving a laundry truck.

Chakiris is well aware of the quicksand perils of the entertainment world, and how they can cause one to lose his values.

"Things are always changing in this business," he said. "You're dealing fundamentally with fickleness."

Success doesn't seem likely to spoil George Chakiris. He is one young actor who doesn't depend on his press clippings to tell him who he really is.

It's Entirely Unlikely Anyone Will Go to Jail for Smoking Cigarettes

EASTLAND, Tex. (AP)—It may get to be against the law but don't expect to see the local jail jammed with people caught selling or smoking cigarettes in this west central Texas town.

Mayor Don Pierson said the City Council doesn't really expect to send anybody to prison—just wants them to quit smoking.

The council passed on first reading Tuesday a proposed ordinance imposing a three-year prison sentence or a maximum fine of $1,000 for selling cigarettes here. Four voted for it and one abstained.

The law would not affect persons passing through Eastland, a town of 3,342.

When the proposed ordinance came to light, local citizens—some of them—couldn't believe it. Others puffed their cigarettes indignantly.

But the mayor said the penalties in the proposed ordinance were not intended to be enforced "because they are not enforceable."

Texas law limits fines levied by municipalities to $200 for violating an ordinance. As long as you can pay the fine you don't have to go to jail.

City Council action followed the surgeon general's report that cigarettes are serious health hazards, Pierson said, and "was to focus the community's attention on the serious problem of smoking." "The main purpose has been accomplished," he said.

Crisis Ends for U.S. in Panama

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

A.P. Diplomatic Affairs writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Johnson administration was reported pleased today with the agreement for ending the crisis in U.S.-Panamanian relations.

President Johnson himself worked on final instructions to the U.S. negotiator in Panama, diplomat Edwin M. Martin, during the midnight hours after a White House dinner for President Antonio Segni of Italy.

Administration officials said the essence of the agreement so far as the United States is concerned is that the United States will discuss with Panama any issue Panama wants to raise. That clearly includes demands for vision of the treaty by which the United States exercises absolute control of the Panama Canal Zone.

The United States is not committed however, to revise the treaty. What it may eventually do in this respect will depend on how the discussions go.

Johnson was notified late Tuesday that as a result of negotiations in Panama the prospect of an agreement was growing.

The break in the crisis came with unexpected speed. Late Tuesday, some of the best informed officials here expected that the government of Panamanian President Roberto Chiari would force a total rupture in diplomatic relations and a closing of the U.S. Embassy.

Panama had taken the position that relations could be resumed only when the United States had agreed to revision of the treaty. Chiari was making demands that the United States virtually abandon the canal but diplomats here understood his real position was that Panama should get a substantial increase in the annual payment of $1,930,000 and a voice in the operation of the canal.

Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk took a counter position that the United States would not negotiate under duress and would not yield its control of the canal. The accord finally reached appeared to officials here on first reading to be an acceptance by Panama of the first point of the U.S. position—that there would be no discussion of basic canal zone issues until peace was restored.

Beyond that, the United States agreed to listen to any and all demands which Panama may make, for treaty revision or on any other issue, but did not commit itself to negotiate on any question, leaving that decision to be made during the prospective discussion.

C of C Banquet

Colonel Hinkle flew thirty-three combat missions.

Upon return to the United States he was assigned as assistant football coach at West Point. After completion of the football season in 1945 he became a tactical officer until the summer of 1949.

Colonel Hinkle joined the atomic training staff at Sandia Base, New Mexico, in 1949 and served as Deputy Training Group Commander until May 1953 when he was selected as Commandant of the Electronics Training School at Keesler AFB, Mississippi. In 1955 he was transferred to SHAPE Headquarters, Paris, where he served as Chief of the Policy Branch until returning to the United States to attend the Air War College in the summer of 1958. One year later he was assigned to the Pentagon as Deputy Director of Personnel Services Division. In this latter position he served as Air Force Representative to the Pan-Am and Olympic Games in 1959 and 1960. He was elected to the National Football Hall of Fame in 1959. Colonel Hinkle reported to Little Rock Air Force Base in late September 1960. Since that time he has attended the B-47 transition school at Wichita, Kansas, and various other Air Force indoctrination courses. He was elected to the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association of Vanderbilt University in 1961.

Colonel Hinkle attended various atomic energy courses between 1949 and 1953. He completed the Air Command and Staff School in 1950, the Manpower Management School in Washington in 1954 and the Air War College in 1958-59.

His decorations include the Distinguished Flying Cross with two Oak Leaf Clusters, the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, the Croix de Guerre, and the Presidential Unit Citation with Oak Leaf Cluster.

In Little Rock, Colonel Hinkle was Vice General Chairman of the 1962 United Fund Drive of Pulaski County; he is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Red Cross Chapter of the Explorer Scouts of the Quapaw Area of Arkansas, and on the Board of Directors of the Goodwill Industries of Little Rock.

Colonel Hinkle married Shirley Elizabeth Shields in May of 1942. Shirley is from Boston having graduated from LaSalle Junior College in 1939. The Hinkles have two daughters and one son. A daughter, Stanley, is married to Lt. Joe Adams of Little Rock Air Force Base. Carl III (Chris) is a junior at Culver Military Academy. The other daughter, Lindsey, is age 13.

Sends Plane Into Wall of School

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP) — A former mental patient ignored police rifle fire and the pleas of the man who taught him to fly and crashed his private plane into a classroom building at Oklahoma Baptist University Tuesday.

The pilot, Robert Lawson, 43, Inola, Okla., was killed when the rented single-engine plane ripped a gaping hole in the side of Shawnee Hall and burst into flames.

Lawson had warned by radio he would crash into the administration building, but since he left the campus several years ago, administrative offices had been moved to Thurmond Hall. Officers evacuated Thurmond Hall, but scores of students were taking final examinations in Shawnee Hall. No one else was injured.

Lawson's son, Mike, 21, is a student at the college. His former wife, Vashti, is a junior high school teacher here.

Police fired high-powered rifles at the plane as it winged low over the Student Union and angled past a flag pole on its fatal run. An autopsy later showed no bullet wounds in Lawson's body.

Fred Reese, Shawnee airport manager who taught Lawson to fly when Lawson was a student here 24 years ago, said he tried to talk Lawson out of making his suicide flight.

"He felt this entire world was against him," Reese said.

Clemency Given 6, 2 on Murder

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The office of Gov. Orval E. Faubus granted executive clemency Tuesday to six convicts, including two convicted of murder.

The term of Mrs. Helena Howard White, 58, of Clinton, sentenced Dec. 5, 1962, in Van Buren County Circuit Court to seven years in prison, in the shooting death of Gletcher Williams, was reduced to three years and six months.

Henricus Martinez, 53, of Fort Smith, sentenced Feb. 16, 1945, in Sebastian County Circuit Court to life imprisonment for first degree murder in the death of Clyde Jenks, had his term reduced to 60 years. Jenks was killed in a scuffle over a gun after an argument.

Other commutations included Charles Oliver, 19, of Booneville reduced from seven years to four years; Bobby Colley, 19, of Paragould, reduced from 10 years to five years; Larry G. Santifer, 21, of Camden, reduced from three years to 18 months; and Walter L. Griffin, 39, of Magnolia, reduced from five years to three years.

Bob Kennedy En Route to See Sukarno

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy took off for Tokyo today on a special assignment from President Johnson to try to persuade Indonesian President Sukarno to back off from his "crush Malaysia" policy.

Kennedy and his wife, Ethel, left Andrews Air Force Base, Md., aboard a military jet plane at 10:19 a.m. EST. They were accompanied by a small staff of advisers.

Shortly before takeoff time, the Philippine Foreign Office announced that Kennedy will arrive in Manila Monday for two days of talks with President Diosdado Macapagal and other officials who have been in recent contact with Sukarno.

Kennedy also is expected to visit London for conferences with Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home before returning here late next week to report to Johnson.

State Department experts who have been following the worsening Malaysia dispute were hopeful that Kennedy could make some contributions which would help improve contacts between Sukarno and the prime minister of Malaysia, Tunku Abdul Rahman.

The Philippines has offered to serve as a link to bring Sukarno and the Malaysians to a summit meeting. Thailand also has made reconciliation efforts.

Man Found Dead in R. R. Diesel

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mechanics found the body of an unidentified man Monday in the cab of a diesel unit they entered to repair at Little Rock. Coroner Howard Dishongh ruled the man froze to death. The locomotive was brought to Little Rock from Booneville Sunday night for repairs.

Bomb Hoax Ties Up Airline

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Three Central Airlines flights through Fayetteville were delayed for about one hour Tuesday because of a telephoned bomb threat.

Raymond Mitchell, acting station manager for Central at Fayetteville, said a young man who talked very seriously called about 3:55 p.m. and warned that a bomb was on the next flight into Fayetteville.

Three flights were approaching the field at the time—Flight 54 from Denver, 142 from Fort Worth and 173 from St. Louis. They landed between 4 p.m. and 4:10 p.m.

Passengers were removed from the planes, which were searched by sheriff's deputies, Fayetteville police, firemen, Central officials and officials of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

President's Job Harder Than Ever

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Pierre Salinger, press secretary for both President Kennedy and President Johnson, says the job is getting harder.

"President Johnson gets up earlier and works later than President Kennedy did and President Kennedy worked longer hours than President Eisenhower did," he told newsmen in Nashville, Tenn.

Salinger was flying from California to Washington when his plane had to land at Nashville. Heavy snow had closed airports in the Washington area.

Teacher to Wed Millionaire Hunt

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A 25-year-old history teacher who claims she's "terrific looking" says she will marry millionaire oilman Lamar Hunt Jan. 22.

"He's taking me on my bubbling personality," said brunette Norma Knobel in a telephone interview after confirming reports of the marriage.

Miss Knobel said she'll quit her job at Richardson (Tex.) High School "to become a full-time housewife." The marriage will be the first for Miss Knobel, the second for Hunt.

Hunt, 31, was divorced about two years ago. He has two children.

gation. No bomb was found. The flights left Fayetteville about 5 p.m.

Egyptian Is New Star in Pictures

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Egyptian actor Omar Sharif and his movie star wife, Faten Hamama, have a design for living. That is, if you can call it living when a married couple resides 7,000 miles apart.

The situation: Omar is the sleeky handsome star of Egyptian films who scored an international hit and an Academy nomination as Peter O'Toole's desert buddy in "Lawrence of Arabia." In so doing, he priced himself out of the Arabic market.

Miss Hamama remains in Cairo to care for their 7-year-old son and her Cairo career. "She has been in films for 24 years—ever since she was 7," explained Sharif. "She enjoys that life, and it would be wrong to ask her to leave."

"On the other hand, it would be impossible for me to return to films in Egypt. I've already had one good picture in the international market, and I've just made another—Behold a Pale Horse—with Gregory Peck and Anthony Quinn. Now it is important for me to make one more good picture, and I would like to make it in Hollywood."

"I think I will be able to, because I have my choice of a number of good scripts. Picking the right one is the only problem; it is difficult to make a choice after working with such

Guide Book Planned for State Parks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission is preparing the first comprehensive guide to camp grounds in the state.

The commission has set a target date of March 1 for completion of a mimeographed booklet which will be made available to anyone requesting it.

C. O. Wahlquist, assistant director of parks, is compiling the campground list. He said the booklet would cover between 300 and 400 camp grounds and would list those operated by private interests, Army Engineers, the National Forest Service and the National Park Service as well as those run by the state. The booklet will not attempt to advertise for the camp grounds but will tell the prospective camper where the facility is situated and how to get to it.

Fleming to Join Staff of Fulbright

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., announced today the appointment of Joe W. (Pat) Fleming, Fayetteville, Ark., as his legislative assistant.

Fleming, who has been on Fulbright's staff for several years, succeeds Norvill Jones, Princeton, Ark., who has been appointed to the professional staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, headed by Fulbright.

Jones succeeded Jack Yingling, Searcy, Ark., who became executive director in Washington of The Support Group for Progressive Banking. Fleming, 26, is an attorney, a graduate of Fayetteville High School, the University of Arkansas and George Washington University. He is a member of the Arkansas Bar.

Building Strike Is Deadlocked

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Contractors and subcontractors voted Monday to stick to their latest wage offers in negotiations today with ironworkers, carpenters and cement finishers who have not worked on 35 Central Arkansas projects in two weeks.

The Associated General Contractors met today with the three unions for more bargaining. The workers walked off their jobs after their contracts expired.

good directors as David Lean and Fred Zinnemann. "If I can get this third good movie, then I will be able to spend more time in Cairo. But in the meantime my wife and I will have to live in different parts of the world."

It wasn't so bad when he was working in Europe, he said. Then his wife could join him for a month or so. But Cairo to California is more of a jump.

Besides establishing his international reputation, work in Hollywood would help fatten the family fortunes. He has yet to haul in the really top money.

Fire Department Loans to Town

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Farmers Home Administration has approved a $71,000 loan to finance fire protection facilities and a water supply for Black Oak, a community of 220 persons 22 miles east of Jonesboro. Residents now use individual wells for public water. The community will add $3,500 to the loan to construct a $74,500 distribution system, 50,000 gallon storage tank and main supply well. The loan will be repaid over a period of 50 years.

Pollution in Air Worse Than Smoke

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — A German scientist says a detailed study soon to be published will prove that air pollution—not smoking—is the chief cause of lung cancer.

Prof. Reinhard Poche of the Duesseeldorf Medical Academy said the study is based on findings from seven pathological institutes in the steel-producing Ruhr State of North Rhine Westphalia.

"On the basis of our examinations covering many years, I am obligated to state that the importance of smoking in causing lung cancer is certainly not as great as has been suggested," he said in an interview Monday.

Poche said the institutes examined 1,229 cases of acute lung cancer during the past five years and also analyzed more than 26,000 official autopsy reports filed since 1908.

Poche said the highest rate of lung cancer was among people particularly exposed to car exhausts, including traveling salesmen, traffic policemen and other people who spend much time on the roads.

Office workers and other people least exposed to polluted air had the lowest rate of lung cancer, although these were known to be among the heaviest smokers, Poche said.

The professor is a nonsmoker.

War Dance Not Good in Tavern

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — In some places, William J. Young complained, the Indian war dance is an honored form of art.

Not so in Pueblo—at least not as Young does it. He was arrested by police who said he created disturbances by staging Indian war dances at a number of taverns.

Taken before Magistrate John F. McGrath, Young said he has their jobs after their contracts expired.

Ironworkers seek a 45 cent an hour increase. AGC members voted Monday to stay with their offer of 37.5 cents. Carpenters have agreed to a 37.5 cent raise proposed by AGC but they want double time for overtime. AGC voted Monday to hold its offer to time and a half for overtime.

A federal mediator and state Labor Commissioner Bill Laney sat in on today's meetings.

Faubus in Parley on U.S. Food

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus is expected today to confer at Washington with Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman on the subject of surplus commodities.

Faubus, in Washington for conferences with President Lyndon B. Johnson and the Arkansas Congressional delegation, said commodities go to fewer of those who need them as a result of a check of relief clients required by the department.

He said the check is sometimes impossible to make precipitating the situation.

The governor conferred with Johnson Monday and told the President that he (Johnson) has a substantial lead in Arkansas over any Republican who might oppose him in the November election.

Faubus said a poll he had made in Arkansas indicated Johnson's lead.

Faubus and Johnson also discussed various Johnson programs of which the governor said he "heartily" approves.

The meeting with the President followed a luncheon with the Arkansas Congressional delegation and several members of the President's cabinet. Several Democratic members of the House were also at the affair.

A Defense Department decision to close Ft. Chaffee was not discussed with the President, Faubus said.

He also met with Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall about obtaining a highway right through the White River Refuge in Desha County and is expected to meet later with Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz on several matters.

The governor told newsmen he had not decided whether to run for a sixth term.

He said he would probably return to Arkansas Wednesday.

NOW, THE TABLES ARE TURNED!

Handicapped Shop Burns at Jonesboro

JONESBORO Ark. (AP) — A workshop for the handicapped was destroyed and a laundry-cleaning establishment heavily damaged Monday night in a fire which swept through a building which covered a quarter block at Jonesboro.

Abilities Unlimited, which employed 19 handicapped workers, lost everything but its records in the four-alarm fire near U.S. Highway 63 on the west city limits of the city. There were no injuries.

Abilities Unlimited was housed at the rear of the building which also contained L&L Laundry and Lambert Cleaners and a dust-control service.

The rear portion of the laundry-cleaning establishment was heavily damaged but destruction was less toward the front of the building. The dust-control service and office portions of the laundry-cleaners were lightly damaged.

There was no monetary estimate of the loss. Several racks of clothing were saved and some of the cleaning equipment appeared salvageable.

Residents who lived nearby turned in the alarm about 6:45 p.m. when they saw flames licking through the roof of the building. The fire was brought under control about an hour later.

Firemen said the fire appeared to have started near a boiler and ventilator system at the rear of the building.

Dillon Lambert, one of the owners, said he left the building at 6:15 p.m., and the manager of Abilities Unlimited, Larry Justice, said the workshop closed at 5 p.m.

The possibility of explosion of containers of highly explosive cleaning fluid stored in the building increased the danger of the fire.

Firemen battled it in 15-degree temperatures and were hampered by frozen fire hydrants and ice.

reapportionment took away two of the state's seats. Alford made an unsuccessful race for governor in 1962.

Hays was a leader in church affairs as well as civic work. He is a former president of the Southern Baptist Convention and still makes many religious speeches.

Hays opened a law office in Washington and wrote a book on the Little Rock integration crisis. Then he was named to the board of directors of the Tennessee Valley Authority. In February, 1961 he was named assistant secretary of state for congressional relations. In November, 1961, Hays became a special assistant to President Kennedy.

willing to care for both of us. This was a couple of years ago. Now I'm in my 60s and my world revolved around my young daughter (she's just 19). But here's the rub: After my sacrifice for her, she wants to marry and leave me! Her boy friend has a good job in another state. This means she'll move far from me. I don't know if I can take it, being sickly though still able to do the housework.

Dear Distraught: Let your daughter go. She will anyway. Sounds to me as if being the "baby" of the family, you had spoiled her.

You should have married that man, despite her objections, if you cared at all for him. It is just as wrong for you to oppose her now as it was for her to "raise holy Ned" then. No one should attempt to lead another's life. Those who try are paid in like coin. Give your daughter your blessing and let her go her way.

What became of your erstwhile suitor—that "nice man"? Drop him a friendly note telling of your daughter's impending marriage and await developments. Just in case she still objects to him, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my letter. "Mother Complex." Your daughter should read it.

Dear Helen: I crave sweets like an alcoholic does liquor. If there's on piece of cake in the house, I hide it so nobody else will get it. By nature I'm not selfish but I'll sneak into the kitchen after my husband has gone to sleep to filch something sweet. Yet every mouthful of candy, cak and dessert I swallow means extra poundage for me.

I'm too embarrassed to admit this weakness of mine. I'm just 26, married to a wonderful man and have two lovely children. What can I do? —Fatty

Dear Fatty: See your doctor. This unnatural craving for sweets indicates that something's missing in your diet or may indicate organic trouble. Also, invest in a copy Adelle Davis' "Let's Eat Right to Keep Fit."

Dear Helen: Seven months ago I met a wonderful man at the wedding of mutual friends. We hit it off from the start. Our only problem is—he'd been engaged to a girl who was faithless. After finding her in the arms of another man he became cynical about all women. How can I convince him I won't cheat too? —Waiting Faithfully

Dear Waiting: Be your best self. "Give to the world the best you have. And the best will come back to you!"

You Can Quit Smoking If You Want to

NEW YORK (AP) — Taper off? Quit cold? Take drugs? Take a "cure"? Switch to a pipe?

Authorities say almost anything will work if you really want to quit heavy cigarette smoking. All it takes is will power.

A gimmick might help. Like counting the hours since the last cigarette. Or taking long walks. Or making a big, public boast—or a bet—you can do it. The cost in pride or money may keep you from backsliding.

Most smokers have to go it alone, but a few can obtain drugs to soften the blow or go to clinics for professional advice and moral support.

One of the best known group therapy clinics is the "five-day plan" offered by the National Health Foundation and Research Institute, founded by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Because the church prohibits smoking, its leaders evolved a technique two years ago for helping new members meet the requirement.

About 1,200 smokers turned out Sunday night in New York City for the opening session of the "five-day plan," first in the city.

They were given a pamphlet, a fruit diet and a pep talk and told that by Thursday, 70 per cent of them would be non-smokers.

Part of the session was devoted to mass recitation over and over of the pledge: "I choose not to smoke."

One instructor advised them to eat nothing but fruit and fruit juices the first day, drink lots of water, take long walks, breathe deeply and stop drinking coffee "because a cup of coffee triggers a desire for a cigarette."

A city official said that far those who don't make the grade, the city soon will sponsor smaller clinics that employ withdrawal drugs.

Cancer Body Hits Harder at Smoking

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Division of the American Cancer Society is broadening its education program against smoking.

The program, termed by the American Cancer Society as one of the best in the nation, reached 75 per cent of the state's high school students last year in an effort to prevent or stop them from smoking.

Tom Snodgrass, director of the Arkansas Division, said this year the society would extend the program into the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Snodgrass said movies on lung cancer and pamphlets especially designed for youngsters were given to 86,357 students in Arkansas last year.

Snodgrass says there is no way of knowing what affect the films and literature had on the older students, but the society feels it can be assured of results at the lower grade level.

By the time pupils reach the high school age level, Snodgrass said, they have formed more rigid opinions about whether they should smoke.

The program is being encouraged by the Arkansas Congress of Parents and Teachers which has passed a resolution to work with school districts in "teaching the harmful effects of smoking."

The Arkansas Cancer Society will also expand its program at the adult level.

It will ask 12 AFL-CIO Area Labor Councils in Arkansas to show anti-smoking films at meetings of their affiliated locals.

But other groups and state agencies have reported no action against smoking. Dr. William Bucu, director of the state Health Department, said that agency has taken no action whatever against smoking.

Dr. Joe Verser of Harrisburg, president of the Arkansas Medical Society, said his group was awaiting the completion of the government report on smoking and cancer before taking action.

The report was made public Saturday.

The Arkansas Cancer Society's youth education program was one of the first state-wide programs in the nation.

In 1963, 15 regional conferences were set up and were attended by 940 delegates from schools in every county.

Snodgrass said the volunteer workers who conducted the conferences did not "preach" to the students. Instead, they presented facts and encouraged discussions. "Is smoking worth it?" they asked the students.

At one conference at a college, Snodgrass said, a representative of a tobacco company was passing out sample cigarettes.

"Sir Henry regrets he can't offer you the rank of major general," Andre said carefully. "You're familiar with the problems of seniority."

Benedict laughed bitterly. "—and he can't risk offending Lord Cornwallis and several other generals who have spent many years in the King's service. However, he'll be pleased to offer you a post as a brigadier."

Benedict was disappointed, but he realized he could not quibble with Andre.

"If we can settle details, I'd like to transfer this very week. It is agreed that I'll receive 20,000 pounds in sterling for delivering the fortress at West Point?"

"It is, sir," the major replied firmly. "Sir Henry is prepared to attack next Wednesday, and if all goes as you've outlined it, you'll surrender without firing a shot."

"I have already sent more than two-thirds of my troops to various outposts. The fortress is undermanned, the cannon are in a state of disrepair and the powder is damp. In its present condition, the fortress cannot be defended."

"I'll report the situation to Sir Henry."

"A new factor has been added since I last wrote to you," Benedict said. "General Washington is in the area, and if Sir Henry could obtain naval co-operation, a flotilla sent up the Hudson might cut him off. The chances of capturing him are excellent."

Andre's eyes widened. "If Washington should fall into Sir Henry's hands, the rebels would collapse overnight. No one else is capable of putting up a prolonged resistance."

Benedict wanted to discuss Sir Henry's projected "attack" on West Point in greater detail, but he was interrupted by the roar of cannon on the far side of the river.

The major looked at him in alarm.

"There's an artillery battery over there that's been begging me for permission to fire on the Culture," Benedict was thoroughly aroused. "The colonel in command is acting on his own initiative."

"He's making my task of returning to the gunboat very difficult," Dismayed, Andre watched the flashes of fire.

Benedict was equal to the emergency. "We'll go up to Mr. Smith's house directly behind us. I'll write you a pass that will enable you to go back to words carefully. His comment can be taken to mean that headlines about the Public Health Service report on smoking hazards are not going to rush him into quick hearings. But his words to not rule out the possibility of hearings sometime this year."

Meanwhile, on the New York Stock Exchange, cigar stocks advanced Monday, but most cigarette issues generally, the late trading was in their favor.

It was a comparatively gentle reaction considering the strength of the federal report condemning cigarette smoking—but brokers explained that stocks were already near their lows for 1963-64, and the late recovery indicated the harshness of the report had been expected.

No Rush to Penalize Tobacco

By STANLEY MEISLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal report on smoking is not likely to rush Congress into action on bills dealing with cigarettes. No one else seems to be in a rush either.

The federal report issued Saturday branded cigarettes a health hazard and called for corrective action.

Four bills on cigarettes are now before the House Commerce Committee. The oldest has been there almost a year. The newest, almost a month.

Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., the chairman of this powerful committee, said in an interview, "I have made no decision about them and have not scheduled any hearings."

Arbitration in L.R. Bike Strike

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The AMF Cycle Division of the American Machine and Foundry Co. at Little Rock and the Steel Workers Union agreed Tuesday to submit a dispute to arbitration, in efforts to end a two-day strike.

Some 300 workers left their jobs Monday, over what the union termed suspension of one employee and the refusal of the company to promote another.

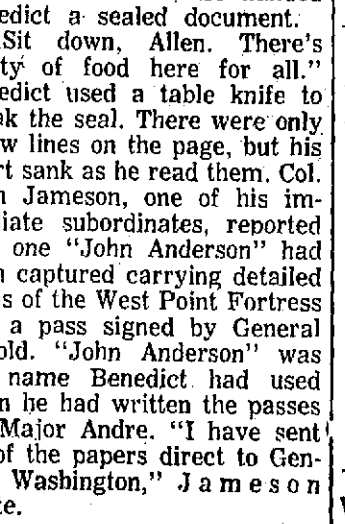

Under the agreement, an arbitrator would be appointed to decide whether the cases should be submitted to arbitration.

American to Vote on K.C. Club Moving

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles O. Finley, who has huffed and puffed and threatened to blow the American League down, will take his case before a jury that apparently already has reached its verdict.

The case—basically a simple question of whether Finley can move his Kansas City Athletics to Louisville—has grown from a baseball argument into a political football.

Here's the starting line-up for Thursday's meeting:

Judge—Joe Cronin, American League president.

Jury—The American League club owners.

Interested parties—Top political figures from three states, Missouri, Kansas and Kentucky, including U.S. Senators Stuart Symington, D-Mo.; James Pearson, R-Kan., and Thurston Morton, R-Ky.

Cronin called the meeting in New York after Finley, involved in an argument with Kansas City officials over terms for use of Municipal Stadium, announced he had signed a contract to shift the A's franchise to Louisville for 1964 and 1965.

The jury need cast only three negative votes to prohibit Finley from moving. An Associated Press survey showed, earlier in the battle, that at least five clubs—New York, Boston, Baltimore, Chicago and Detroit—were opposed.

Baltimore President Lee MacPhail and Detroit owner John Fetzer made public statements Tuesday.

Asked what would happen when Finley requests to move the A's, MacPhail said:

"I don't think he'll get one vote."

MacPhail said that "at no time was Finley encouraged to think the league would approve a transfer of the A's from Kansas City. The majority of us are against moving the A's."

Fetzer said he thought Finley's chances of getting his way were "less than 1,000 to one."

Fetzer went on to say that Finley's moves had been unorthodox and "there is a streak of irresponsibility involved here which precludes normal judgment."

Despite the obvious sentiment against his move, Finley has remained adamant. He has said

Pete Ward Gets Fat Chi Contract

CHICAGO (AP)—Third baseman Pete Ward signed his 1964 baseball contract with the Chicago White Sox today for almost twice his last season's salary. He became the fourth White Sox player to come to terms.

Ward, who led the Sox in six offensive departments in his major league rookie season, reportedly was upped from an $8,000 minimum to around $15,000 for the coming season. Ward led Chicago in hitting with .295 and in RBI with 84. He also had 22 homers, tying Dave Nicholson for the club lead.

Malvern on Top League Standing

The Malvern Leopards, last year's round robin champion, and the Smackover Buckaroos have taken the first week lead in the 12-game Div. 4AA round robin championship schedule with 2-0 marks. The five other teams all have suffered defeat.

In the opening week of play Malvern defeated Fairview 40-22 and Hope 68-64. Smackover defeated Camden 42-40, and Magnolia 69-37. In other games Fairview edged Crossett 57-54 in overtime and Magnolia defeated Crossett 61-51.

Games this week: Friday night—Smackover at Hope; Malvern at Magnolia. Saturday night—Hope at Camden; Crossett at Malvern; Magnolia at Fairview.

In the early individual scoring race Malvern's James Chancellor took the early lead with 44 points total in two games. Sandy Stroppe of Crossett is second with 36 points. Don Loser of Malvern is third with 27 points and Reggie Speights of Smackover is fourth with 26 points.

The winner of the 4AA round robin will be the host for the post-season tourney. All seven teams will participate in the tourney this year with the first three places earning berths in the State AA-AAA tournament.

Durocher in Denial Vt. Charges

MIDDLEBURY, Vt. (AP)—Leo Durocher, Los Angeles Dodger baseball coach, has been sued for $150,000 in an alienation of affections suit brought by a local self-employed mason, Rene Morin of Swanton, Vt.

Durocher, in Vermont over the weekend to make a speech at an American Legion scholarship fund-raising dinner, was arrested and released on $30,000 bond.

His attorney, Lt. Gov. Ralph A. Foote, said there was no association with Morin's wife, Anna, other than that she was the mother of Carolyn Morin.

The American League will not take away the franchise and he has issued this challenge:

"If the league pulls the rug out from beneath me, the league is going with me. The league is as involved in this as I am. This isn't all but I'm saving some things to spring at the meeting."

Hope Takes Three From Emmet Teams

By CARTER HARDAGE

Hope Star Sports Writer

Hope made a clean sweep Tuesday night in Jones Field House in three games over Emmet. The "B" Boys slammed the Emmet Seniors 57-36, while the Girl's teams both scored in come-from-behind victories: Juniors, 29-24, and Seniors, 52-34.

Everyone had a hand in this, the "B" Boys' second win in three starts. Ronnie Ingram was the leader in the scoring department with 15 points to his credit. Charlie Beard had 10, Powell 6, Billings 5; Ramsey, Jordan, May, and Watkins 4 each; and Mayfield and Guerin sacked 2 apiece.

The Lady Cat defense deserves a lot of credit for their part in the Ladies fifth win in a row, because they actually held Emmet scoreless throughout the entire third period. Phyllis Martin had 18 points, Shirley Smith 17, and Annette Hatfield 13.

The Junior Girls started the evening off right by registering their second win of the season. Carol Anthony was high with 11 points.

Crosby Golf Tourney on Thursday

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Anything can happen at Bing Crosby's golf tournament and you can only guess what will happen when the $60,000 production swings into action Thursday.

Two years ago snow caused postponement of the final day's play. Never before had it snowed during this tournament but rain and winds aren't at all unusual.

A year ago pro Dave Douglas of Lakewood, Colo., carded a 19 on the 10th hole of the Pebble Beach course. That set no record since Hans Merrill of Mogadore, Ohio, had taken 19 strokes on the over-the-ocean 16th hole at Cypress Point a couple years before.

Arnold Palmer's money-winning was stopped at 47 consecutive tournaments when in the 1963 Crosby he was disqualified for improperly playing a provisional ball.

Billy Casper won a year ago with a 72-hole score of 285 but he had to watch on television while both Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player lost big chances to catch him. Finally, five tied at 286 just a stroke off the pace.

Both Player and Nicklaus missed putts on the 18th that would have sent the tournament into a playoff.

Even crooner Crosby could have had no idea how big his tournament would grow when he first invited some friends to a golfing clambake at Southern California's Rancho Santa Fe in 1937. That friendly gathering of pros and amateurs grew into a field of 348 this year playing over three courses.

Crosby's tourney carries a $60,000 price tag but he keeps the format of teaming a pro with an amateur throughout the play. Each team plays Monterey Peninsula Country Club, Cypress Point and Pebble Beach alternately the first three days. Then the leaders battle it out in the final at Pebble Beach on Sunday.

Nicklaus, who won the National Amateur at Pebble Beach in 1961 before turning pro, returns to the wars for this one. He missed the earlier 1964 action at who was a receptionist for Durocher in California.

The four daughters of Mrs. Morin issued a statement saying there was no truth in the alienation charge, and said that the father had "not acted normally toward our mother or ourselves for some months. He has even threatened us physically."

Miss Morin, who is in her 20s, and her three married sisters, Jean Hadley, Paula Sharkey and Elinor White, issued the statement through Foote.

Morin's attorney must appear in court with the complaint in 21 days or the matter will be dropped.

All-Star Bowling Begins at Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — One of the strongest fields in the 23-year history of the All-Star Bowling Tournament is on hand for tonight's opening events.

The 127-pound St. Louis fireball, Dick Weber, will be gunning for his third straight championship in the $100,000 event. He would win $15,000 if he takes the title as he has done the past two years.

The greatest threat facing Weber probably is Don Carter, who has won four of the 15 All-Stars in which he has appeared. Nearly half of this year's field of 288 men are veterans from other All-Star tournaments.

Marion Ladewig, 49, of Grand Rapids, Mich., won the women's title last year over Bobbie Shaler of Chicago. Both are back.

Harding in 72-64 Win Over AST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A day late, but not even a penny short were Harding College's Bisons Tuesday night. They socked State Teachers 72-64 and jumped back into a tie with Ouachita at first place in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball race.

The Harding triumph at Searcy forced the Tigers to share the AIC lead they held for 24 hours—since beating Arkansas College Monday night. Ouachita and Harding have 7-1 league records.

In other games, Arkansas A&M tripped Southern State 73-64, Henderson rocked the Highlanders 76-73, and Arkansas Tech bounced Hendrix 86-78.

Harding pulled away from the Bears, who fell to 5-3, in the second half on the shooting of Vernon Rogers, who finished the game with 23 points but got 18 in the second stanza. Harding's biggest lead was 10 points with 1:26 to play.

Henderson maintained a slim lead throughout to beat Arkansas College at Arkadelphia. Jerry Savell got 22 for the Reddies and LaVaughn Robertson put in 18 to lead AC.

Arkansas Tech grabbed the lead with a little more than five minutes to play, and went on to whip Hendrix at Conway.

Chester Barber hit a bucket that gave Tech a 77-76 lead with 5:08 to go, and the Wonder Boys led the rest of the way. After that shot, no other points went on the board until 1:14 was left in the game when Barber hit a pair of free throws.

Wes Crawford hit 22 for the Warriors, Larry LaFavers got 24 for Tech and Barber finished with 20.

Arkansas A&M quelled a Southern State rally to win at

Ultimatum Could Have Killed Game

By BOB SALMON

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP)—It was advertised as the night of the 14th annual National Basketball Association All-Star game.

But it may have been the night the NBA came painfully close to collapsing.

Game time Tuesday night was 9 p.m., EST. Television cameras for a national audience were ready. A full house was settling back at Boston Garden, waiting for the 20 best players in the league to begin action for the East and West teams. The spotlights were about to go on.

There was only one flaw. The players had decided they were going to walk out—leaving the cameras, the audience, the fans and the spotlights—if the league didn't call a meeting of the Board of Governors.

They wanted a pension plan. And, apparently, they wanted it, or at least solid assurance of it, right then and there.

The players told me at 8:55, five minutes before game-time, that they would go through with the game," said J. Walter Kennedy, league president.

Until that moment, Kennedy said, the game was in doubt. The East squad, led by Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson and Boston's Sam Jones, went on to win 111-107 and register its ninth victory in 14 games.

But the game seemed anticlimactical after what had been taking place in a dressing room 50 feet from the court.

Kennedy told newsmen at the hastily-called conference just out of sight of the fans—and just as the game got underway—that he had just met with All-Star Tom Heinsohn of Boston, President of the NBA Players Association, earlier Tuesday and discussed the proposed pension plan.

He assured Heinsohn, he said, that the plan would be acted on either Feb. 18-19, at the NBA Board of Governors meeting, or on May 1, when all the club owners would be present at the league's annual meeting.

He said he thought the matter had been taken care of. But at 6 p.m. Heinsohn and Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks came to his hotel room and demanded an immediate Board of Governors meeting.

This was impossible, Kennedy told them. But he agreed to contact all the owners who were in Boston for the game and get assurances from them that they would act on the pension plan either next month or May 1.

The NBA president then met with the 20 All-Star players in a dressing room at 8:25 and assured them that the plan will be thoroughly considered.

That was that and the game—a good one—went on after a 10-minute delay. The East built up an 18-point lead in the third period, then had to hang on as the West, led by Jerry West of Los Angeles, Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco and Pettit, rallied and closed the margin to four points on three occasions.

Robertson was the game's high scorer and Most Valuable Player with 26 points, 14 rebounds and eight assists. Wilt and Pettit each had 19 points.

Platoon to Return for Razorbacks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Coach Frank Broyles will return to the three-platoon system in 1964 for his Arkansas Razorback football team.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association's ruling that teams may substitute platoons was greeted with enthusiasm in the Arkansas camp.

Broyles has been a vocal critic of the NCAA's restrictive substitution rules which ruled out platoons for years.

"We will be better in 1964 for going back to the three-team system," Broyles said, "but not near as much relatively. That is, from talking with other coaches around the conference, I'm sure at least half of them will go to the three-team system in 1964."

Arkansas was the only Southwest Conference team with the platoon system in 1962. Broyles will use a Big Red unit for offense and defense, a Wild Hog unit for defense, and a Tush Hog unit for offense. Each unit will make from one to three appearances each period, Broyles said.

Magnolia. The Muleriders, trailing by eight at halftime, fell back 58-40 midway through the second half, but put on a scoring surge that cut A&M's lead to 65-61.

Solon Mobley put in 24 for the Boll Weevils.

Butts Takes Big Cut in Libel Suit

By MIKE BARRON

Associated Press Sports Writer

ATLANTA (AP) — Former Georgia athletic director Wallace Butts says he will be guided by his attorneys' recommendation that he accept a $2.6 million cut in his libel judgment against the Saturday Evening Post.

"We have recommended that he accept it," said attorney William H. Schroeder Jr. Tuesday night, "and we are certain he will take our recommendation."

"I will be guided by my attorneys," Butts said in Athens. "I have no further comment to make. It is my understanding that we have 20 days to make the decision."

A federal judge ruled Tuesday that the award of $3.06 million by a jury to Butts was grossly excessive. However, U. S. Dist. Judge Lewis R. Morgan held that the magazine libeled Butts in charging that he and Coach Paul Bryant of Alabama conspired to fix the 1962 Georgia-Alabama football game, won by Alabama 35-0.

The jury gave Butts $3 million punitive damages and $60,000 general damages. He had sued for $5 million in each category.

Morgan, who presided at the trial, ruled that Curtis Publishing Co., publishers of the Post, would get a new trial unless Butts filed in writing within 20 days an agreement to forego punitive damages above $400,000. The judge did not alter the general damages.

Willborn B. Cody, chief counsel for Curtis, said he would appeal the ruling even if Butts agrees to the reduced judgment.

Schroeder and Allen Lockerman, another Butts attorney, said they felt the decision was an affirmation of Butts' vindication of the charges in the Post article of March 23, 1963, called, "The Story of a College Football Fix."

The article said Butts fed game data on the Georgia football team to Bryant, that they rigged and fixed the game, and that both were corrupt.

Meanwhile, the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New

Mine Best Job in U.S. —Broyles

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

"I think I've got the best job in the country," said Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas when questioned about a statement that he was under consideration for the head football job at Oklahoma.

Glenn Northcutt of Willis, Okla., chairman of the University of Oklahoma Board of Regents, said Broyles was his personal choice to succeed Bud Wilkinson as Oklahoma head coach.

"I'm real happy at Arkansas," said Broyles. He added that he was not interested in leaving Arkansas "for any coaching job or under any circumstances."

The Oklahoma regents said as many as 20 coaches were under consideration, including Texas Coach Darrell Royal.

Arkansas State Wins in Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Arkansas State College trounced Trinity University 87-60 Monday night in Southland Conference basketball.

Game high scorer was Trinity's Pete Ranucci with 23 points. Arkansas State's Orleans has refused to order a Birmingham, Ala., federal judge to shift the trial of Bryant's $10 million libel suit against the Post outside Alabama. Bryant also sued the Post after the article appeared.

U. S. District Judge H. H. Groons set trial for Feb. 10 in Birmingham, but Curtis asked the Appeals Court to order that the trial be held outside Alabama. The firm contended it could not get a fair trial in Alabama.

U.S. Skaters Must Meet Soviet Star

HOENEFOSS, Norway (AP)

American speed skaters hope to score heavily in their strong event, the 500-meter race, during next month's Winter Olympics, but a 31-year-old Moscow meteor may veto the project.

Evgeny Grishin, Russia's two-time Olympic champion and world record holder at the distance, zipped to an easy victory over an international field Tuesday in a pre-Olympic meet.

U.S. skaters took four of the first 12 places but team coach Leo Freisinger was disappointed.

"I expected we would do quite a lot better," Freisinger said after Bill Disney of Rosemead, Calif., finished third, more than a second behind Grishin's winning time of 41.2 seconds. "The boys were losing a lot of strides and were fighting the ice all the time."

Villy Haugen, 19-year-old Norwegian, was runner-up to Grishin in 42.2 seconds. The Russian captured the 500-meter event in both the 1956 and 1960 Olympics and also won the 1,500-meter race in 1956. Speed skaters race the clock in two-man heats, rather than in packs, during European and Olympic competition.

Disney's time Tuesday was 42.3. Eddie Rudolph of Northbrook, Ill., twice lost his balance on ice that was somewhat rough and finished in a fourth-place tie, at 42.4, with Norway's Ole Herman Aamodt.

Terry McDermott of Essexville, Mich., wound up in a seventh-place deadlock at 42.6 and Buddy Campbell of Paramount, Calif., placed 12th, with a 43.4 clocking.

Ray Utley New Coach at Pine Bluff

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Ralph Brooks resigned Tuesday as head football coach at Pine Bluff High School and Ray Utley, backfield coach for four years, was elevated to the head job.

Utley, 27, helped Brooks through two straight unbeaten seasons and a streak of 27 games without a loss. Utley is head track coach at Pine Bluff.

Brooks reportedly is considering taking a job in Texas. The change is effective at mid-term.

points, but John Dickson contributed 19 and Jerry Rook 17 for Arkansas State to pace the Indians to their victory.
